The principal objectives of the Company are to issue securities, such as warrants, certificates, private placements, notes, to enter into related OTC agreements and to issue and acquire financial instruments of any nature.

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of presentation

The interim financial report of the Company are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the Netherlands and in conformity with Title 9, Book 2 of the Netherlands Civil Code. All amounts are stated in euros, the reporting currency, unless stated otherwise.

The accounting principles of the Company are summarised below. These accounting principles have all been applied consistently throughout the financial year and the preceding year unless indicated otherwise.

Accounting convention

The accounts are prepared under the historical cost convention modified by the translation of foreign currencies.

Financial instruments

Financial instruments include accounts receivable and accounts payable, cash at bank and cash equivalents, issued securities and acquired OTC contracts. Financial assets and liabilities are recognised on the Company's balance sheet when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

Valuation of assets and liabilities

The issued securities such as warrants, certificates and notes and the related OTC contracts having the same characteristics are stated at fair value.

Other assets and liabilities are stated at nominal value.

Method of determining fair value of issued securities and related OTC contracts

Fair value is determined on the basis of quoted prices in an active market; or using valuation techniques involving mathematical calculation methods based on accepted financial theories, and parameters derived in some cases from the prices of instruments traded in active markets, and in others from statistical estimates or other quantitative methods. The distinction between the two valuation methods is made according to whether or not the instrument is traded in an active market. Whether or not a market is active is determined on the basis of a variety of factors. Characteristics of an inactive market include a significant decline in the volume and level of trading activity in identical or similar instruments, the available prices vary significantly over time or among market participants or observed transaction prices are not current.

At determining fair values the three categories of financial instruments are distinguished based on the characteristics of the instrument and the measurement method used:

Category 1: financial instruments quoted on an active market;

Category 2: financial instruments measured using valuation models based on observable parameters;

Category 3: financial instruments measured using valuation models based wholly or partly on non-observable parameters. A non-observable parameter is defined as a parameter whose value results from assumptions or correlations which are not based on observable current market transactions in the same instrument at the valuation date, or on observable market data at that date.

The OTC contracts have the same values as their related securities.

Recognition of income and expenses

Other income and general and administrative expenses are taken in the year to which they relate. Profits are recognised in the year they are realised; losses are taken as soon as they are foreseeable.

If securities are exercised against the Company, the Company fulfils its obligation by exercising the related OTC contracts with entities of the BNP Paribas group as the case may be. Issued securities and related OTC contracts are released simultaneously. Issued securities not exercised at maturity and the related OTC contracts are released without any further future obligation for the Company.

Foreign currencies

Balance sheet items relating to assets and liabilities denominated in currencies other than the euro are translated at the rate of exchange prevailing on balance sheet date in principle as given by the European Central Bank. The resulting exchange rate differences are credited or charged to the profit and loss account. Transactions in foreign currencies during the reporting period have been incorporated at the rate of settlement.

Corporate income tax

Tax on result is calculated by applying the rates for the financial year to the result in the profit and loss account.

FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

Due to its activities the Company is exposed to a variety of financial risks, including the effects of changes in debt and equity market prices, currency exchange rates and interest rates. However, all issued securities are hedged by OTC option and swap agreements with BNP Paribas entities and therefore these risks are completely mitigated.

Market risk

The Company takes on exposure to market risks arising from positions in interest rate, currency and equity products, all of which are exposed to general and specific market movements. However, the risks are mitigated by the above mentioned OTC contracts.

Credit risk

The Company has a significant concentration of credit risks as all OTC contracts are acquired from its parent company and other group companies. Taking into consideration the objective and activities of the Company and the fact that BNP Paribas S.A. is a high credit quality financial institution under supervision of the French central bank, management considers these risks as acceptable.

Liquidity risk

The Company has significant liquidity risk exposure. To mitigate this exposure, the Company entered into netting agreements with its parent company and other group companies.

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company has entered into various agreements with its parent company and other group companies relating to the issuing of financial instruments, the hedging of the related exposures and the reimbursement of costs. These agreements are at arms-length and have as objective to limit cash flow, credit and market risks.

PRINCIPLES FOR PREPARATION OF THE CASH FLOW STATEMENT

The cash flow statement is prepared according to the direct method and consists of cash only. Corporate income tax is presented under operating expenses and interest is taken into account under financing activities.

Netting agreements between the Company and entities of the BNP Paribas group have been drawn up for all flows resulting from securities and OTC contracts to avoid that payments have to be made for these flows. This procedure is reflected in the cash flow report under the heading “Issuing of securities against OTC coverage”.

NOTES TO THE BALANCE SHEET

For all issued securities OTC contracts with BNP Paribas group companies are agreed having the same characteristics as the issued securities. ## BNP Paribas Arbitrage Issuance B.V.

When issued, securities are publicly offered or privately placed. Sometimes privately placed securities are listed for the secondary market. Listed securities are listed on stock exchanges in and outside the European Union; the related OTC contracts are not listed.

The premiums of the issued securities and the cost of the related OTC contracts are denominated in different currencies. Moreover, the underlying contracts of the securities have their own currency denominations, which are often based on a basket of currencies. The net effect of the currency risk is nil though, as this risk is completely hedged. The currency risk is not specified, as this information is not readily available and can only be obtained at unreasonable high cost.

No accrued interest is presented in the balance sheet because the accrued interest is part of the market value of the financial instruments as disclosed in the balance sheet. The net result on the financial instruments equals zero and is recorded on a net basis in the profit and loss account, see note 4.

NOTES TO THE PROFIT & LOSS ACCOUNT

4. Net result financial instruments

The net result financial instruments includes capital gains and losses, currency results, interest income and expense and changes in fair value on the issued securities and related OTC contracts. As the Company enters into an OTC option or swap agreement with a BNP Paribas group company at each issue of securities at exactly the same terms and conditions of the issued security, there is a complete hedge of the economic risk of the Company. Therefore, the net result on the financial instruments equals zero and is recorded on a net basis.

5. Other income

Other income concerns general and administrative expenses of the Company increased with an up-count of 10%, based on a cost plus agreement concluded for an indefinite period of time. These costs have been or will be invoiced to BNP Paribas group companies.

6. Corporate income tax

The corporate income tax is the estimated charge for the period. The rates for the financial year 2009 are 20 and 25.5%. The effective rate for the period is 20%.

Issuing expenses and remunerations

Issuing expenses are all expenses related to the issuing of the securities for account of the Company and are reimbursed by BNP Paribas group companies, if charged to the Company.

The sole director of the Company has charged a management fee of EUR 26,080 over the reporting period (the six months' period ended June 30, 2009 EUR 25,805).

BNP Paribas Arbitrage Issuance B.V.

The fee for the audit of the financial statements charged by Deloitte Accountants B.V. amounts to EUR 24,500 per annum (2009: EUR 23,000).
